If you were kind enough to take the name of "Allissa" from the Samaritan Angel Tree—#84—please call Pat Kaider (382-1213). Thank you.

There will be a Parish Anointing of the Sick Celebration on Tuesday afternoon, December 8, in the church after the 55+ luncheon that day. The lunch begins at 12:30 and the Anointing will take place about 1:15. This service is offered to anyone who feels the need to be anointed and finds themselves in illness, chronic illness, or facing surgery or medical treatments. The elderly are always invited (and encouraged) to be anointed as are those who may be experiencing emotional or spiritual anxieties. Come and celebrate this beautiful sacrament of our church!

"Test Your Catholic Knowledge" - When you genuflect you are to face the (a) altar; (b) tabernacle; (c) Our Lady of Guadalupe. Write your answer along with your name and phone number on a piece of paper and place it in the collection basket for a chance to win our monthly drawing.

The Samaritan Angel Trees for our Gifts for Kids are displayed at both doors of the church. Would you be kind enough to participate this year? Simply take one of the angels and list your name and phone number on the roster sheet by the number of the child's angel. (If you would like a family of 2 or 3 children, please let us know.) Please purchase at least two articles of clothing and a toy for that child. Some of the angels list special needs or interests of the child as well as their sizes. Wrap and tag the gifts with the child's name and put them in a large, black plastic bag with the angel attached to the outside. Gifts need to be dropped off in the hall by Monday, December 7th. If you have any questions, please call Pat Kaider at 382-1213. Please be an angel this year and help make Christmas something special for a needy child!

Please be sure to recognize and welcome the new RCIA class whose pictures are displayed at the doors of the church. We are fortunate to have 9 members this year who have expressed a desire to join our church and/or receive the Sacraments of the Catholic Church. The team always boasts of what a wonderful family of Faith we have here at OLQA . . . be sure to show that to them when you see them! If you know them, drop them a line of encouragement and welcome. If you would like to send them a note, let the rectory know and we can get you their address. Thanks!

The Cursillo Holy Hour for Crawford County in honor of the women's cursillo taking place this weekend in Erie will take place at our church THIS Saturday, November 21st, at 7 P.M. Please try to come!

In honor of the Feast of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music, the National Pastoral Musicians of Erie Catholic Diocese, Meadville Deanery, will provide a morning of musical celebration. The featured music will be songs that are new to the OCP Breaking Bread songbooks (used in most parishes in the deanery) or songs that are not commonly heard during the Liturgy. Come and bring a friend. This Saturday, November 21st at 10:00 A.M., hosted this year at St. Peter's in Conneautville. You are invited to stay for a great lunch after the program, provided by the musicians. See you there!

Please mark on your calendars that important date: THIS COMING Sunday, November 22nd. We will be celebrating our annual Afternoon of Reflection for Parish Ministries. The entire parish is invited and encouraged to attend this afternoon. We will begin at 2:00 and finish with evening prayer for the feast of Christ the King. Fr. Jerry Simmons of Erie will be coming to give the keynote talk and speak about "To Serve as Jesus Did". Please try to come to this wonderful afternoon. A light dinner will be provided.

As with everything, as you are so aware, costs are rising and the prices of things keep going up and up. To keep up with all of this, we find it necessary to raise the prices of our cemetery lots and columbarium niches, beginning January 1, 2010. Presently each of these cost $300 and this will be raised to $350 with the New Year. Even so, we realize these costs are far less than many of our neighboring cemeteries. So . . . if you have been thinking of purchasing these, perhaps now would be the time to do so . . . before the increase.

Next Sunday is the great feast of Christ the King. We finish this Church year with such a wonderful celebration and then move in to the brand new year, with the season of Advent. We "wrap up" the feasts and celebrations of this past year—all the great days of saints and seasons, the liturgical calendar—and honor our Lord as a King, the King of our hearts and homes. The celebration next weekend is as much for us as it is for the Lord. We remember we are a priestly and royal people who belong to our King. We are brothers and sisters in the Lord, sons and daughters of the King of Kings. May His name be honored from every corner of the earth from age to age. Amen. Have a beautiful week!

Fr. Arnett

There is a second collection next weekend at all Masses for the Campaign for Human development. This collection helps the poor of the United States—the 37 million who live in poverty in our own nation. Please be as generous as you always are.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of Mary Sue Prather, sister of Pat Pineo, who recently died. May she rest in eternal joy and happiness until we all meet again!

Mary Groger of our parish has generously agreed to be in charge of the Prayer Chain during those times that Cheryl Garnet may be away. Therefore, if you have a prayer request in the next few weeks (until December 1st) please call Mary (336-3564).
