Our faithful OLQA pet Gabriel has entered a "Pet Extravaganza" contest sponsored by the Meadville Tribune. It's sort of a "beauty contest" for pets, and with great humility, Gabriel hopes to win! He's banking on the parish's support. All you have to do is cast a vote for him and each vote costs only $1. You can mail in your vote or even vote on line. The money collected for this extravaganza benefits the Newspapers in Education Program. Voting begins the end of January. So hurry in with your vote for Gabriel! You can go on line to see the results at Meadvilletribune.com. Gabriel has heard that a few other "parish pets" are joining the contest, but he has every confidence in the loyalty and love of the parishioners of OLQA. VOTE FOR GABRIEL!

As we observe the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday this week, let's keep in our prayers all efforts toward equality and love for one another. Racial tension and prejudices still exist in such hurtful and hateful ways. May the dream of Martin Luther King and so many others continue to come true . . . a world where people live in love and respect for one another.

Congratulations and welcome to Brevyn James Ceremuga, son of John and Theresa, who is baptized at the 10:30 Mass this weekend. May God bless him and his family

The green of "Ordinary Time" reminds us of life and vitality in the Lord. It's like the green of springtime and foliage. The green calls us to renew our life in Jesus and find in Him our life, our strength. Especially during these winter months, green is a fresh sign, a sign of hope. As beautiful as the Christmas decorations were, how great to be back to "normal" again! Ordinary time. These numbered days of weeks and Sundays. We celebrate now the "second" Sunday of our ordinary time. Last week's Baptism of the Lord took the place of the First Sunday. And in this second Sunday we hear the story of water into wine. It was Mary, the Mother of Jesus, who requested the miracle to happen. Mary tells the waiters, and tells us, "Do whatever He tells you." What great advice from Our Lady. How great it would be to remember those words as we move through our days . . . "Do what He tells you." Have a wonderful week listening to the Lord.

The flowers in the sanctuary this weekend are in loving memory of Dot Walde in honor of her anniversary from her husband, Bob. May she rest in peace.

Please remember to try to come to the concert in our church THIS AFTERNOON, Sunday, January 17th, from 4:00—5:00. Fr. Vit, a Franciscan priest from Youngstown, will be here performing with cello and piano. There will be a light reception in the parish hall after the concert. There will be a free-will offering for the ministries of the Franciscan Order. Come and enjoy an afternoon of music and fellowship!

A special thank you to all those who helped down the Christmas decorations inside and outside this past week. Thanks to: Dan Werner, the Novosel family, John Meyerhoff, Rich Gero and Kathy Barton.

Today's Readings

Reading I: Isaiah 62:1-5. God rejoices over you!
Reading II: Corinthians 12:4-11. One Spirit gives different gifts to each.
Gospel: John 2:1-11. The first miracle of Jesus was at a wedding in Cana.

Question of the Week: 1. God gives each of us special gifts to use for the benefit of all. What gift have you received?
 2. You may not be able to turn water into wine as Jesus did, but how can you become a miracle in the lives of others?
