Flowers in our sanctuary this weekend are in loving memory of Patricia Hess from her family, the Perfets, Dorothy Kuhl from her family, and the candle ring of flowers are in memory of Patricia Bodosky from her family. May these women rest in eternal joy and peace with God.

We continue to lift in prayer the priest and people of our sister parish—St. Anthony of Padua in Tekit, Mexico—along with St. Isidore (Ochil), Mary of the Assumption (Mama), and St. John the Baptist (Sabacche) churches. Fr. Bartolome is the pastor of these churches. The first and foremost purpose of this relationship is to hold each other in prayer. They are praying for us these days, and we return the gesture. In future weeks, we will discover new ways to forge this relationship—with prayer, communication, and material goods.

We will have adoration and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament this Monday morning, July 5th, from after the 8:00 morning Mass until 11:30. This is a graced opportunity for us to come before the Lord with our many prayers and intentions. Just come and sit quietly with God for a while and enjoy His company! You can write prayer requests if you wish this weekend and place them in the basket for us to place near the Blessed Sacrament Monday morning.

Tuesday of this week is the Feast of Maria Goretti, patron saint of youth, especially young girls. Let's pray for the girls of our parish . . . and for all youth: that they stay close to God this summer through prayer and Sacrament.

Happy Independence Day! I'm sort of glad the day falls on Sunday this year so that so many will be celebrating Mass together. When the Fourth falls during the week, we always have a nice group of people who come to Mass, but on Sunday . . . so many! And we together need to lift our voices in song and prayer: thanking God for our nation, our freedoms, and for those who made this possible. We continue to hold in prayer those men and women (especially from our own parish and "summer parishioners") who are part of the armed services. Many are away from home and we pray for their safety and their safe homecoming. God bless the United States in a special way this weekend! Happy Fourth!

Fr. Arnett

There is a second collection next weekend for the National Needs of our Church. This collection is dispersed through the conference of Bishops to those areas of our own country that would otherwise not be able to function or provide Catholic services to their people. This is our way to assist our less fortunate brothers and sisters in Catholic churches that cannot afford programs. Please be as generous as you always are.

Last chance . . . Don't forget to call the rectory and make your reservation for a trip to the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage in Cleveland to see Women & Spirit: Catholic Sisters in America. We will be car pooling THIS Friday, July 9th. We will leave the church parking lot at 9:30 and stop for lunch, then tour the exhibit. We will stop for a "snack" on the way home. Don't miss this opportunity!

Today's Readings

- Reading I: Isaiah 66:10-14c. The power of the Lord shall be known.
- Reading II: Galatians 6:14-18. I boast of nothing but the cross.
- Gospel: Luke 10:1-12 and 17-20. I am sending you as lambs.
- Question of the Week: Each of us is called to a specific work in the plan of Jesus. 1. To what do you feel called? 2. What support from the church do you need to accomplish that work?
